Maria Corona

Project Manager, City of Corpus Christi

Maria Corona is a 2016 graduate from Texas A&M University-Kingsville (TAMU-K) with a B.S in Environmental Engineering. She worked with the Corpus Christi Water Engineering group for three years working on water infrastructure projects before moving to the Water Resources group. Now she does project management for water supply projects, water conservation, and groundwater management and reuse.

There has been a lot of talk about desalination. Guest speaker Maria Corona with Corpus Christi Water will provide facts on the project and answer your questions.
