Nature Story Time

Join Children's Author Taylor Garcia and her dog Roux as she reads her debut book, Oh My How Ducks Fly.

From cover to cover, this children's book was meticulously created with the objective of captivating young readers through its breathtaking and accurate illustrations, all while delivering invaluable insights into the captivating world of some of the most common ducks found in the United States and their distinctive flying behaviors. It's a book that you and your children can treasure as they grow up, providing them with a unique perspective on waterfowl and sparking their natural curiosity.

- This program is FREE of charge and intended for children ages 2 to 6.
- Space is limited in the room. There will be two reading times (2pm & 3:30pm)
- After the story, the group will take a walk along the StoryWalk where the book will be featured.
- All children attending the program must be accompanied by an adult.
- For more information, contact Marissa Zaino at MarissaZ@cctexas.com.
